		 After 46 weeks on the chart, Fearless is close to matching the more than 4 million in sales of Taylor's self-titled debut album, which has now been on the chart for 153 weeks.	 "American Ride," Toby's satirical look at the state of our union, is his fastest-rising single since his controversial 2002 smash "Courtesy of the Red, White and Blue (The Angry American)."

Toby's latest is an animated sendup of American politics and pop culture. "I'm a 'right-wrong guy' not a 'right-left guy,'" Toby says. "And this video shows that. We took our shots at everyone."
